

Thank you!

Colleagues,

I wanted to take a moment to recognize the Touro team including several of our colleagues who stepped forward to provide exceptional care to the patients injured by the mass casualty incident on January 1, 2025.

On behalf of Touro's Executive Leadership team, I would like to extend our deepest thanks to those who participated in this critical response. Your swift action, expertise, and compassion in the face of such immense pressure are a testament to the values we hold at Touro. While we all train for situations like this, the reality is always more challenging, and the care provided by those involved went above and beyond expectations.

Please join us in recognizing and thanking the medical staff members who gave their all during this time.

Special Thanks to:

- Dr. John Day
- Dr. Ryan Bird
- Dr. David Seltzer
- Dr. Bradley Smith
- Breann Bonner, PA
- Dr. Ian Ferguson
- Dr. Kevin Watson
- Dr. Ares Christakis
- Dr. Michael Cook and LSU residents
- Dr. Manish Singh

We know this emergency response effort involved team members, providers, and physicians across specialties and disciplines. If we have inadvertently overlooked anyone who contributed to this effort, please accept our sincere apologies and know that your dedication has not gone unnoticed. We are incredibly proud to have each of you as part of our Touro family.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment to care.

Sincerely,

Candace Robinson, MD
Chief Medical Officer
Touro